Rising Stars

Offered to high school students from all over Southern California who are interested in being involved with the Japanese American community, the Rising Stars Youth Leadership Program provides students with the opportunity to develop, strengthen, and exercise their leadership skills. This program ensures that students will learn the vital keys to successful leadership through the various presentations and workshops that take place over a five-month period. A program of the Nikkei Federation, Rising Stars has been able to flourish with the support from its many sponsors.

THE YOUTH OF RISING STARS

- Develop their leadership skills
- Practice effective presentation skills
- Learn about cultural heritage through various activities
- Experience teamwork and implement team building strategies
- Learn time and project management
- Develop networking and career building skills
- Make lasting friends
